

around town

John Brown, 9, of Pond Street clears snow off skating pond made by town.

Marine Sergeant Kevin Burke, son of John T. and Ann L. Burke of 9 Ledgewood Drive has been meritoriously promoted to his present rank while serving with 2nd Force Service Support Group, Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune N.C. He received the accelerated promotion in recognition of outstanding performance, duty proficiency and demonstrated professional abilities. He joined the Marine Corps in January, 1976.

David Bernstein of Fair Oaks Lane has joined the staff of Dwyer & Mullin Real Estate in Cohasset. Bernstein is a graduate of Boston University School of Business Administration. He has been involved with life insurance and sales management. His avocation is training and raising horses and he is involved in various community activities. He and his wife Anita have two sons, Phillip and Glenn.

Jurors on the Invitational Gallery Artists Show selection committee are Norman Baer, Berj Kalian, Iso Papo, Linda Wasko, Joanne Young and Constance Pratt.

Mary Jeanette Murray, Republican State Representative from Cohasset, warns that a "Massive increase in home insulation will bring about a massive amount of 'shaky dealers' taking advantage of the fast-buck season." She notes that Massachusetts has developed a program which makes available to homeowners a sample insulation contract and a list of certified homes insulators in the state.

Nominations are open for the National Conservation Teacher Award. Competition is open to all full-time K - 12 teachers who have developed an outstanding program of environmental education. Nomination forms may be obtained from the Norfolk Conservation District, 460 Main St., Walpole.

Samuel Lyman was born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Goedecke of Atlantic Avenue Jan. 15 at the South Shore Hospital. His grandparents are the Mark Goedeckes of Canton, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Oonk of Woodbury, Conn.

The January meeting of the Community Garden Club featured a talk by Mrs. Fay McLardy, "From Coffee to Cocktails with Herbs". Mrs.

McLardy is a nationally accredited flower show judge and demonstrated gourmet dishes with fresh herbs. Special flower arrangements for this meeting were by Mrs. Thomas Flynn and Mrs. Robert Benson. The Junior gardeners presented a special exhibit "Books and Flowers" and there was a houseplant exchange.

The selectmen have declared that skating on Lily Pond is hazardous. With the rains and the partial January thaw, parents are requested to thoroughly check the areas on which their children skate.

Robert and Maria Williams of North Main Street are the parents of a son, Jeremy, born Jan. 17 at the South Shore Hospital. The baby's grandparents are Mrs. Dorothy Simpson of Pompano Beach, Fla. and the Frank Rabuffettis of Hyde Park, Mass.

Rotary Club elections were held for the new Board of Directors who will assume their duties July 1. President is Don Harrold, Vice-president Mike Equi, Treasurer Peter Collins and Secretary Fred Johansen. Peter Logan, John Sadler and current president Jim Kearney are the remaining three members of the Board.

William J. O'Connell of Linden Drive has become a member of the Boston Young Men's Christian Union, a gymnasium-recreation center. The YMC offers a wide range of activities including gymnastics, volleyball, basketball, handball, jiu jitsu, karate, wrestling, boxing and weight lifting. Special classes are held for businessmen. A chess club, library and a billiards room and camera club are other features of the YMC Union, which sponsors Camp Union, a Greenfield N.H. summer camp for boys.

Jack Conway has announced the opening of his first out-of-state real estate office in St. Petersburg Beach, Fla., at a meeting at the Hanover headquarters of the 23 year old firm. This new office is the 24th brokerage location and "it will serve a real need in our community because of the exceptionally large amount of greater Bostonians who are finding their way to the fast-growing sunbelt" said Conway, past President of the Mass. Association of Realtors.

Deborah Standard Cook has been chosen as an Outstanding Young Woman of America. Upon graduation from the University of Vermont, she was town planner in Stowe, Vt. While a student in Greenwich, Conn. High School she was chosen for a pilot project in urban planning, comparing the cities of Stamford and New Haven. The mayors of both cities attended seminars to discuss urban renewal.

Jennifer Jackson, 5, and Susan Riley, 9, sled tandem down freshly covered hill in front of Cohasset High School.

NO BANK IN MASSACHUSETTS CHARGES FEES

It's A True Fact:...

That No Bank in Massachusetts Pays
Higher Interest on No-Notice Accounts Than
The Pilgrim Co-operative Bank in Cohasset Village